

Flower Personification

Due: _____

Directions: Create an original flower themed cartoon character and personification paragraph highlighting the function and importance of your flower part. If your design/paragraph is chosen for the board, you will receive 5 points of extra credit!

You must include:

1. A detailed, COLOR, cartoon, drawing of your flower part.
2. A short personification paragraph of your flower part.
 - a. Explain what your part's function is
 - b. Explain why your part is important.
 - c. Use 1st person language - "I", "we", "mine"

An example is provided at the bottom for inspiration.

Grading Rubric:

	1	2	3	4
Cartoon Picture	Cartoon Picture is drawn, but teacher can tell student was very rushed.	Cartoon picture is drawn in color, but teacher can tell student was rushed.	Cartoon picture is drawn in color with detail.	Cartoon picture is drawn in color with detail and looks professional.
Personification Paragraph	Paragraph uses 1 st person language.	Paragraph uses 1 st person language to explain the function OR the importance, OR explains both with many grammatical errors.	Paragraph uses 1 st person language to explain the function and importance of the part with few grammatical errors.	Paragraph uses 1 st person language to explain the function and importance of the part with no grammatical errors.
Organization	It is clear the student was rushed and did the project at the last minute.	Project is detailed but messy.	Project is clean and detailed.	Project is clean, detailed, and of quality

I'm a stiff sort of fellow who gets the thirsty work down for plants. I take water to Leaf and his friends and deliver food in the form of syrupy sap. The plant cells I use are harder than most, with woody walls that make excellent tubes for slurping up liquid and making a plant stand at attention. Unfortunately this stiff stuff also makes vegetables stringy.

